

John “Chuck” Fowke
President
Florida Home Builders Association

Tampa Bay’s John “Chuck” Fowke is President of the Florida Home Builders Association. As the founder of Homes by John C. Fowke, Inc. and with more than 30 years experience, Chuck’s name is synonymous with quality and value in Tampa and throughout Florida’s home building industry.

Chuck is a member of the Tampa Bay Builders Association (TBBA). Chuck and Homes by John C. Fowke built TBBA’s 2008 Showcase Home. He was named Builder of the Year by TBBA in 2006 and 2009.

As the Florida Home Builders Association’s (FHBA) President, he continues his tireless efforts in protecting Florida’s home building industry. In the last few years, Chuck has served as FHBA’s Secretary, Treasurer and First Vice President, sat on numerous committees, chaired FHBA’s Legal Action, Finance, and Industry Issues Committees, and served as Vice-Chair of the Legal Action Committee.

With the National Association of Home Builders, Chuck is serving his second year as National Area Chairman, his fifth year as a BuildPAC Trustee, is the Vice Chair of the Audit Committee, and previously served as the Florida State Representative for four years.

He enjoys golfing and boating. He and wife Kathryn have seven children: Jennifer, Amy, Tara, J.C., Chris, Jon, and Taylor.
